CRAZY MAGAZINE is Vol. 1 No. 88, July, 1982 issue. Published monthly by MARVEL COMICS GROUP, 387 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10016. James E. Gailton, President Stan Lee, Publisher. Michael Hobson, Vice-President, Publishing Milt Schiffman Vice-President, Production. Second Class postage paid at New York, N.Y. and at additional mailing offices (U.S.P.S. 378-490). Postmaster: send all address change forms to CRAZY Subscription Dept. c/o above address. Price: $1.25 per copy in the U.S. and Canada. Subscription rates: $12.20 in the U.S., $13.20 in Canada and $14.20 for foreign subscriptions respectively for 12 issues including postage. Printed in the U.S.A. The names, characters, and/or institutions used in CRAZY fiction and semi-fiction are fictitious. Any similarity between them and any existing person or institution (for other than satirical purposes) is purely coincidental. Honest! The editors neither accept, nor are responsible for unsolicited submissions. However, if you find it too difficult to resist the urge to send us your bad art, then you may do so, only please mark your package "FOR PAPER SHREDDER", as it will save our staff the time and effort of deciding which of our numerous trashcans to throw your submission into (after all, it says quite clearly in the index that we do not accept unsolicited submissions). Got it? After all, any letters, art, old cookies, or top-secret military documents you people send in become our property. So we do what we want. The editors of CRAZY Magazine accept no responsibility for Obnoxio The Clown. None. In fact, we won't even talk about him. ## WOLF SOUP

Dear Crazy,

I just bought #84 of your terrific magazine. I thought your parody of An American Werewolf In London was very funny, a lot funnier than "The Yowling" [issue #80] was. And I liked The Eleventh Hour Special's version of Bette Davis Eyes. I also liked "Insult Football", and "Crazy Looks At The Super Bowl". And I wouldn't mind visiting "Obnoxio's Funland" some day (that is, if it really existed). By the way, as good looking as that [soup can] was on the cover, why didn't you make a Looney Label in issue #79 of it?

Obnoxio Jr.
Anthony Parks
Pulaski, VA.

Dear Crazy,

Your story "An American Werewolf In London" was fantabulous! Dirk McGirk's Report was hilarious as usual, and "Walkmania" was a masterpiece! The Gross Encounters were good, but better when Joe King did the art. Teen Hulk was better! I don't care what some idiot says about too many Hulks. "Insult Football" and "Crazy Looks At The Super Bowl" were excellent (I've always hated football). I listen to the radio a lot, so I always enjoy Behemoth Jack. The Kinetic Kids worked (and very well done). When will

"Obnoxio The Clown's Funland" be under construction? Crazy Contest #8 was okay: Fantasy Vs. Reality was great as always. I loved doing Obnoxio's Fun Pages! Auntie Nuke was funnier! Of all the stories "The Tonaught Show" was well-written, but, I always did think Kent Gamble drew like a rat with ink on its paws!

I liked the covers: "Cream Of Obnoxio Soup?" Watta riot! My mother said she'd see if she'd pass it by. The "Paper-Smelling Paper" was very amusing! So was the comic by Sparling.

Now, is my check in the mail?

Davey St. Clair
Rock Hill, S.C.

It most certainly is. —Ed.

Dear Crazy,

I think issue #84 was great. "American Werewolf..." was lousy. Obnoxio made me sick (his "Funland" should be condemned). The Gross Encounters were ignorant. I ripped up Teen Hulk, The Kinetic Kids, Insult Football, The Tonaught Show, and Auntie Nuke. Otherwise, #84 was good.

James Kirkman
Bedford, IN.

Uh, gee... thanks...? —Ed.

Dear Obnoxio and Friends,

Issue #84 was perfect, especially "An American Werewolf In London", where you had the dead people singing (loved it) and the goryness of Lerk's face (beautiful). The second best thing was Dirk McGirk's English Report (just dandy) pages 6 and 7 especially.

As for all those un-American commies who insult your mag, they should be tied to a revolving door and be forced to listen to Lawrence Welk!

David Hall
Malden MA.

Similar sentiments were penned by Cline Wynan of Potts Camp, MI.; Paul Moreira of San Jose, CA.; and Missy Anderson of New Lexington, OH. —Ed.

ANIMATED ACCLAIM

Dear Crazy Magazine,

I liked issue #84, it was excellent. You should have more of The Kinetic Kids in your magazine. You should also get rid of those dumb Fun Pages. I feel like ripping them up.

Todd Hammerschmidt
Wauwatosa, WI.

Dear Crazy,

I thought your issue #84 was great, especially "Insult Football" and The Kinetic Kids. They were both hilarious.

Randy Ehler
Sycamore, IL.

Dear Crazy,

I just had a great idea—I'll flush my kid brother down the toilet. Wait just a sec... nope, the toilet don't want him either.

Theresa O'Shea
Boston, MA.

Dear Crazy,

Disregard this letter. Ignore it completely. It doesn't have any significance whatsoever.

Theresa O'Shea
Boston, MA.

P.S.—I told you not to read it.

Dear Crazy,

Have I written enough letters to be in Crazy yet?

Theresa O'Shea
Boston, MA.

Nope. —Ed.

OBNOXIO'S ABUSE COLUMN

Dear Slimeface,

You gotta be the ugliest clown on the face of the earth. Did your mother tattoo your name on your arm so you could remember it? You're more worthless than a bucket of turtle barf. Boy you're smart! You've got two brains; one's out looking for the other one. You smell worse than a room full of dead fish. By the way, do you want to lose 10 pounds of ugly fat? Lob off your head!

Frank & John Guzzardi
and Sue Dwyer
Waterbury, CN.

Y'know, it's little runts like you who give kids a bad name. I mean, all three of you gangin' up on poor ol' Obnoxio, insultin' my dear old mom an' sayin' mean things about me. Well, hear this you little pinheads, I know why it took all three o' you t'write me. First of all, yer combined I.Q. don't equal yer shoe size, and it took all three of ya t'save up enuff money fer th' stamp.

What's th' matter, ain'tcha dads got no jobs? Or is th' bum just cheap? Do ya all live together an' pool yer underwear? I ain't even gonna talk about yer mom; I'm sure he's a swell guy. Does yer mom still work in th' car wash? Does she still mud wrestle th' family dog in her spare time? What else does she do with th' dog? Does she dress it funny, too? Does she lock you people in a dark closet fer days? Do ya like closets? Say, here's a fun thing t'do... why don'tcha all run into a nice, dark closet an' hold yer breath. Just fer fun. —O.T.C.

Address all hate mail to "Obnoxio's Abuse Column" c/o the address below (and if you send us your picture, he'll make fun of that, too!). —Ed.

Warning: Sending letters to this column indicates the sender's willingness to be abused. Publicly. Where all the sender's friends and relatives can see. Yup. Right here. And, if you don't include your name and address, we won't even consider possibly getting around to look at it. Nope.

MEAN GREEN FAN MAIL

Dear Chester Weems,

Teen Hulk in issue #84 was great except for one thing: Why did you waste your time at a roller disco??? I mean, disco is dead! It's been dead for two years now! The thing that's in is Heavy Metal!! AC/DC! Van Halen! The Blue Oyster Cult! Come on, you don't wanna be a geek, do ya?

An Ardent Heavy Metal Fan,
Mr. X

Dear Crazy,

I loved your issue #84 with "An American Werewolf In London". Dirk McGirk's Essay was great. The Kinche Kids was a shocker. But Teen Hulk was weirder than my stupid brother

Mike Lawrence
Valpo, IN.

Dear Crazy,

Your magazine is so dumb! Where do you get those crazy ideas?! From the nut house? I'm going to call the cops and have you people arrested!

Furthermore, how dare you malign the great Stan Lee by associating his name with that inane Teen Hulk??? You should be ashamed—no, you should be shot!

Cathy Wojtowicz
Brooklyn, N.Y.

Before you load your rifle, Cathy, we think you should know the Mean Green Teen was Stan The Man's own little brainstorm. Yep, he came racing into our offices two years ago with a wide grin plastered across his face, and ordered —er, suggested we do the strip, which was then created by Larry Hama and Marie Severin.

—Ed.

STRANGE LETTERS FROM GIRLS

Gentlemen,

I think you owe the rock and roll world an apology for when you referred to Led Zepelin as "Dead Zeppelin". You said the name fits the band because their careers have been moving like one in the past five years.

I don't know if you realize that on July 26, 1976, Robert Plant's son died of a stomach virus, thus causing the band to slow down to almost a complete halt.

After the release of their latest album, "In Through The Out Door" in 1979, drummer John Bonham died.

The group has since officially ended, and if the remaining band members stay together, it will be under a different name.

Please check your facts and try to keep from insulting your readers and the band members' families again, or you will face a drastic loss of sales.

Carol Schermerhorn
Hampden, MA.

Foots,

I hate your magazine. It is so stupid. Issue #84 was really bad. How can anyone buy that stuff? I was ready to flush it down the toilet, but my mom caught me. So, I threw it out.

Hate you always,
Sara Doepfer
Rochester, MI.

Crazy,

You stupid idiots! I hate you! You should die! I'd sue you, but I'm only 9! The only thing in your magazine I like is the hate mail! You people should be put in jail!

Karen Wojtowicz
Brooklyn, N.Y.

Dear Crazy,

Your "Moron" contest winners (issue #84) must all know my husband. I didn't even know he has friends in the U.S.!

Okay, people; what's got thrills and chills, fun, prizes, and zebra stripes? Think hard, now. Got it? That's right, the answer is... the fabulous, monthly, no-getting-around-it-'cause-it's-always-gonna-be-here Crazy Contest (we lied about the stripes)! That's right, some lucky winner's gonna get himself/herself a free 1-year subscription to Crazy, the magazine that dares to tread the fine line between bad taste and the Republicans. To enter: send a postcard (only postcards! Letters are not accepted! Really! Please stop filling up our trashcans with your letters!!! And only one (1) uno ONE entry per postcard for cryin' out loud!) with the funniest "How Fat Was She...?" joke you can think of to "Crazy Contest #12" c/o Marvel Comics Group, 387 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10016. All entries must be received by June 4, 1982. Contest will be judged by our editors, and their decisions are final. ## CONTEST #9 WINNERS!

(In which we asked our readers for "Great Excuses For Being Late To, Absent From, or Unprepared For School")

Grand Prize Winner:

"I did my homework but... all of a sudden, a bullet came through my window, snagged the paper with the homework on it, hit the button that switched on the fan, then carried the paper into the fan, and the fan tore it to shreds."

A free 1-year subscription to:

Robert Grazio
Hazelton, PA.

Royal Runner-Ups:

"I am not prepared to take my Sex Ed test 'cause I was out all night with my girlfriend."

Kraig Nadjkovic
Croswell, MI.

"The reason I was absent from school yesterday was because when I went home, I found out that my folks had moved off without me, and there was nobody to tell me it was time to get up and go to school..."

Ho-Dad
Tulsa, OK.

"I was absent because when I was coming to school this morning, a bunch of F.B.I. agents attacked me, said I was Anton Soklezkyspasy, and took me to a place and tortured me, asking where the plans for the U.S.' new CO2 bomb were."

Ian McGrath
Newington, CT.

"When I was walking to school my legs fell asleep and I forgot my alarm clock, so my feet woke up late."

Marcia Stanczak
Roseville, MI.

"On my way to school I was mugged by a gang of Quakers."

John Nowakowski
Elyria, OH.

"I dropped it into my mom's chili sauce."

Phillippe Amyotte

"I couldn't get my homework done because our T.V. is broken."

Pat Akers
Troy, MO.

"In the night my exam was stolen."

Jerry Crimmins
Chicago, IL.

"I helped an old lady across the street and she invited me in for milk and cookies and when we went in she robbed and beat me up."

Sam Tocci
Midlothian, IL.

"I'm very sorry, teacher
That I missed out on subjects with glue,

But I was absent last week
With 20 cases of asian flu!"

Dan McCormick
Madison, WI.

"My pet hamster was dying and I had to give him C.P.R."

Bill Owings

Captain Dullard — what in thunder-ation are you doing in that get-up!?

I'm going into hostile enemy territory to assassinate a renegade Army officer — what am I supposed to wear — a loin-cloth and sling-shot?

Don't you know who you're going after!? Bullets just get him angry!
See!

Gasp! Why — that's Colonel Klutz, the only Green Beret officer ever to have his Medal of Honor accepted for him by an Indian squaw!

That's right, Capt. Col. Klutz has gone insane, setting up his own, private army of misfits and savage natives! It's up to you to terminate his command with extreme prejudice!

Do what with WHICH!?!?

TERMINATE... y'know. It's Army talk... TER-mi-nate!

He's got termites?

He means we want you should KILL Klutz — And remember, Klutz is more than just a ruthless, highly trained killer — he's a merciless showman as well!

I KNOW! I can see what he's done here at the docks!

We did this! We have to do something to pay for all those bullets and bombs you guys are always insisting you need!

I was becoming obsessed with my quest for Col. Klutz — his face haunting my every waking hour! I would surely go mad if I didn't do something!..

STOP!! How come you hadda pick this cruise to hold a Marlon Brando film festival!?!

They made me an offer I couldn't refuse!

You're in luck, folks! We're just in time to take part in a real fire-fight!

Try to avoid the napalm, watch out for snipers... oh, and, have a nice day!

Hey! Don't you know it's dangerous to sell souvenirs here, mister!

With the economy the way it is, no business is safe! Wanna buy a souvenir?

No thanks. I picked up enough souvenirs a couple of yards back — shrapnel in my leg!

Ahh, the valiant members of the press — fearlessly risking life and limb to bring a truthful picture of the war to anxious mothers on the homefront!

CUT!!

Let's take this from the top boys... only this time, put more feeling into it! And all you wounded — you want to try and bleed a little more!

On second thought, maybe all the real mothers are HERE!

SURF'S UP!
Let's go,
Annette!

We go up river to here then make a left and...

No, no, Dullard! Hang a right on Lincoln Boulevard to 18th street...

No wonder we're lost —this is a map of downtown Hoboken!

You mean to tell me you've been ordered to kill one of our own men? Boy, that's nasty! How can you stand to look at yourself in the mirror?

You think this is bad!? Before I was drafted, I sold Used Cars!

Man, I told that clown not to try it with roller-skates!

Isn't that childish? Grown men making total fools of themselves just to see a scantily clad female! Childish, I say!

I don't care what you say. I've been in the jungle for 8 months without seeing a woman! I'M going!

EA HONEST-TO-GOSH GUY BUNNIES N! METCHA! ONLY AT LOUGHLAND!

Uh-oh! I think I feel an attack of second childhood coming on! Race yah to the broads!

It's an old Cong trick, Cap'n! They sneak supplies to the guerillas in a boat disguised as a civilian craft!

What'd you think we should do, Chief?

We gotta make sure we do things according to current military procedure!

Right —

We massacre first and cover-up later!

Help! Get me outta here!

You gotta save me!

Lord! What a horrible place! No man deserves to be... here! No wonder those pour souls are begging us to save them!

I'll say! Imagine having no place to eat except a Howard Johnstons!

CRAZY Looks A

We should never have told the tellers where Security installed the hidden cameras.

Why not?

They keep posing for group portraits!

This is a stickup. Don't try anything funny, I've got a Lawrence Welk record.

Hello, can you help me? Hello? Can you answer my question? Hello?!

Yeah, whadaya want?

A Lawrence Welk record? You can't kill me with a Lawrence Welk record!

Well, I was going to ask how much interest this bank gives, but I see it doesn't give any!

Oh no? I guess you've never heard one before!

After working here a while, these 50-dollar bills become nothing more than green pieces of paper with the number 50 on them.

Is that all? Well, then, would you mind giving me a couple of those green pieces of paper with the number 50 on them?

Sure... in exchange for five green pieces of paper with the number 20 on them!

Just one minute, sir... this ten dollar bill is counterfeit!

Oh my! I'm an honest man, let me replace it! Here... here's a seven and a three!

I'm sorry, I can't cash this check-- you don't have enough money in your account.

I don't? Well, I can fix that easily enough... let me write you a check!

Money has been devalued so much that my kids won't even bend over to pick up pennies that fall behind their desks.

I got my kids out of that habit.

Oh yeah? How?

I spilled $100 worth of pennies beneath their dressers... believe me, they learned to bend over all right!

Sock Rocks Hubby's Happiness

Dear Rocky,

I think my wife's been fooling around. Tonight I found a yellow and green argyle sock under my bed. Should I confront her?

Unsigned.

No, you bum! Be a little less suspicious and your wife will stop planting phony evidence to get your goat. And show her you trust her. Take lots of long business trips, and don't question her if she does the same (even if she doesn't have a job). Call her every night just before leaving the office to tell her you love her. Never, never make her think you're checking up on her by coming home unexpectedly. And mail the sock to the address at the top of this column.

Dear Rocky:

I know you hear from lots of fathers with son-in-law problems. But the bum who married my daughter has done nothing for eleven years except drink beer and talk to his bookie. When my daughter suggests he look for a job, he throws furniture at her. I'm going broke supporting this freeloader. How can I get him out to work?

AND YOU WON'T EVEN NEED YOUR SCISSORS WHEN IT COMES TO DETACHING THE INSIDE FRONT AND BACK COVERS IN ORDER TO MAKE YOUR GAME BOARD! SO GO TO IT!

PSYCHOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENT DATA SHEETS

Directly below we have kindly provided you with four data sheets which you can make excellent use of the first time you play this game. After that, you're gonna hafta construct your own data sheets. So, don't throw all of these away once you've used them; keep at least one of 'em around to use as a model.

These are your Power Cards. They don't look very interesting, do they? But c'mon now, be fair— wait until you've seen the other sides of the cards before you decide if they're interesting or not— okay?

You have just become a registered warlock and are entitled to all the benefits thereof.

You have been endowed with the power of telekinesis. Use it wisely.

You have just become a disgusting werewolf and are entitled to all the benefits thereof.

You have been endowed with the power of levitation. Use it sparingly.

You have just become an undying vampire and are entitled to all the benefits thereof.

You have suddenly acquired the power of astral projection. Bet you can't wait to make use of it.

You now know the secret of the universe. But keep it to yourself, okay?

You have just become a disgusting warlock and are entitled to all the benefits thereof.

You have been endowed with the power of telekinesis. Use it sparingly.

You have just become a registered werewolf and are entitled to all the benefits thereof.

You have been endowed with the power of levitation. Bet you can't wait to make use of it.

You have become a purple vampire and are entitled to all the benefits thereof.

You have suddenly acquired the power of astral projection. Use it to the best of your ability.

You have been endowed with a green thumb. Ain't much of a power, but don't knock it.

You have been endowed with the power of prestidigitation. Big deal! Who cares?

And what do we have here? Why, it's another batch of boring cards! What did you think they were— bookmarks? C'mon, get with the program, willya kid?

You have been cursed with festering boils! Yuck, but you're disgusting!

You have suddenly become a hemophiliac.

You are now given to vicious head colds.

You lose one power. Place one of your power cards on the bottom of the deck. If you don't have any powers yet, you lucked out.

You have been cursed with post-nasal drip.

Your mind is no longer clear because you are now obsessed with getting good grades.

You have become allergic to dairy products.

Your mind is no longer clear because you are now obsessed with revenge.

Your nose has fallen off.

You have become too fat to hide behind trees.

You lose one power. Place one of your power cards on the bottom of the deck. If you don't have any powers yet, you lucked out.

Your life has suddenly become meaningless.

Your mind is no longer clear because you are now obsessed with external beauty.

You have developed a taste for anchovies.

You have been cursed with a terrible sense of humor.

Yes, yes, we realize there's really no need for us to add these silly introductions to the tops of these pages of card-stacks. However, the author of this piece knows that the editor has a reluctance to pay for pages that don't have at least a few words on them...

If you are in Ward A, you are given drug treatment and immediately released. If you are in Ward B, you are completely ignored and must stay where you are.

You escape from the Psycho Ward. Proceed immediately to Panel 7, and put your hat back on.

If you are in Ward A, you are given shock treatment and immediately released. If you are in Ward B, you are completely ignored and must stay where you are.

You have been babbling incoherently for a week, so you'd better just stay right where you are.

If you are in Ward A, you are given a lobotomy and immediately released. If you are in Ward B, you are completely ignored and must stay where you are.

You have had a flash of inspiration, but nobody will listen to you. So, stay right where you are.

If you are in Ward B, you are given drug treatment and immediately released. If you are in Ward A, you are completely ignored and must stay where you are.

If you are in Ward B, you are given shock treatment and immediately released. If you are in Ward A, you are completely ignored and must stay where you are.

Your parents have found you out. Proceed immediately to the Psycho Ward of your choice.

You suddenly discover you can astrally project yourself up into the next plane: if you possess that power, proceed to Panel 10.

You have entered a cursed area: if you are not a warlock, a werewolf, or a vampire, you must return to Start.

You suddenly discover you can levitate yourself up into the next plane: if you possess that power, proceed to Panel 10.

A heavy wind: your hat blows off. Back to Start you must go.

If you possess a green thumb, grow a vine and climb it up to Panel 10.

An unusual curse reaches up from below: anyone with boils, post-nasal drip or a green thumb must now return to Start.

A mystic doorway appears before you. Unless you are too fat to hide behind trees, you may pass through and proceed to Panel 10.

You have come up against a force field: unless you know the secret of the universe, you must return to Start.

If you are a warlock, a werewolf, a vampire, or a telekinetic, this is your lucky moment: proceed immediately to panel 10.

A solid wall is in your way: unless you possess telekinesis, levitation or astral projection, you must return to Start.

A secret route can now be sniffed out. If you have a nose, you may proceed to Panel 10.

Things have suddenly gotten quite heavy: if your mind isn't perfectly clear, you must return to Start.

A wall of salty little fishes lies in your way: unless you have developed a taste for anchovies, you must return to Start.

An evil magician stands in your way: if you possess the power of prestidigitation, impress the heck out of him and proceed to Panel 10.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR BEGINNING

Once you have constructed your spinner (by shoving a pin through the center of the PSYCHIC POINTER as well as the center of the PENTACULUM OF PERSONAL PROGRESS in such a way that the POINTER spins around atop the PENTACULUM), you are ready to play the game.

All players are to place their MYSTIC MARKERS OF MORGLIMLA upon the "Start" panel. Then, proceeding around the board in a clockwise manner, each player in turn spins the spinner in order to find out in which direction he is now supposed to move his marker, moving only one space in that indicated direction (right, left, forward, or back; ignore the numbers—these are for use later in the game).

If the pointer points to "Stay", you, of course, don't get to move at all this time around. In addition, if there is no panel in the direction in which you are supposed to move, you also have to stay where you are. For example, if you are at "Start" and the pointer points to "Back", you do not get to move. Or, if you are at "Space 2" and the pointer points to "Left," you cannot move. This rule is also designed to teach you patience. However, when and if you land upon a numbered panel, you must follow the specific directions for that panel, as found upon one of the following two pages...

You find a shiny stone and decide to keep it. And that means it's time to play Three-Coin Monty (also known as the Simplified I Ching): Toss the three coins. If they come up all heads, that means the stone is good and you should pick a Power Card. If they come up all tails, that means the stone is evil and you should pick a Disability Card. Anything else and you don't git to pick nuthin'!

You have chanced upon the mystic doorway which leads from the boring mundane plane upon which you have been stuck most of your life to the first of the far more enlightening and rewarding astral planes. You're on your way now, kiddo, and your first order of business is to proceed directly to Panel Six.

A passing magician hands you a mystic scroll which looks more like a used candybar wrapper than anything else. You decide to hold onto it anyway, which of course means it's time again to play Three-Coin Monty (see the explanation for Panel Two for complete instructions as to how to play this diverting past-time, but this time substitute the word "scroll" whenever the word "stone" shows up).

You run into an authority figure (parent, policeman, or teacher) who asks you what you've been up to lately. If you haven't as of yet visited either of the astral planes, you have nothing to worry about. However, if you've been up there, knowing you, you'll tell said authority figure all about it, which of course means you are immediately sent to the booby-hatch (which in this game is known as the Psycho Ward).

You run into another authority figure (whichever one you didn't run into the last time, if, that is, there was a last time). Once again, if you have been to either of the upper planes, you will feel compelled to tell this person all about it, and you will thus be immediately carted off to the booby-hatch. You just can't keep your big mouth shut, can you?

Welcome to the first astral plane, the ring of fire, the Realm of the Wordless Word, and all that sort of malarky. From here on up, when you use the Pentaculum, ignore the words (you've gone beyond that) and concentrate upon the numbers, moving forward (in the direction indicated) that number of panels which your Psychic Pointer ends up pointing to once you've spun the spinner. You may also put on a hat; however, when and if you sink back down onto the mundane plane, you must take the hat back off.

You are having a mystic experience, but what did you expect up here on the astral plane? Re-runs of the "Lucy Show"? All of which means it's time for you to pick an Astral Playin' Card. However, unlike the Power and Disability Cards, you don't get to keep these babies. So, once you've read the card and done what it says to do, please place said card back on the bottom of the proper deck.

Uh-oh! Another mystic experience! So pick another card already!

Welcome to the second astral plane, the Ring of Light, the Pentultimate Pathway, the Circle of Seeing the Mountain Again. Even though you now realize that time has no meaning and numbers are mere tools which are used to excess by lesser beings than yourself, you have decided to be a nice guy, to play the game and follow the rules. So, spin the spinner, follow the numbers, and laugh as loudly when you lose as when you win.

Wait a minute! Wait a minute! What the heck are you— yes, you— doing up here, upon this, the second astral plane? Thought you could sneak by, didn't you? But you're too success-orientated! Too competitive! You really want to win this game, don't you? See? See what we mean? You're missing the whole point! You don't belong here anymore than Richard Nixon would! So, get out of here! Go back to "Start"! Try again if you wish, but this time try to develop the proper attitude, okay?

Well, you're almost there. You're only a few breaths away from ultimate enlightenment, a mere step removed from being not unlike a god. Now, all you have to do is throw the three coins three times, and if you get nine heads, you may proceed to Panel Thirteen which makes you far more than just the winner of this silly game. However, if you don't get nine heads, you've really blown your big chance and must return to Panel Seven.

No mere words can explain what ultimate enlightenment is all about. But you know that already, don't you? After all, you're there. You've made it. And, undoubtedly, you can feel limitless power coursing throughout your body. Why, now you could even send, say, a couch to Alpha Centauri merely by using your mind. Such is your power. The only question is: why would you want to? I mean, now that you've got the power, why waste it on doing dumb stuff like that?

ADDITIONAL DIRECTIONS

When and if you are sent to the Psycho Ward, you may choose which of the two Pscho Wards you wish to be sent to— Psycho Ward A (also known as the Psycho Ward at Bethesda Hospital) or Psycho Ward B (also known as the Psycho Ward at St. James Infirmary). From then on until you are told to leave, when your turn comes around, instead of spinning the spinner, you must pick a card from the “Treatment” deck, do as it says, then put the card back on the bottom of the deck.

Do not forget to mark the proper check points on your Psychological Data sheet. If you have already been through the treatment indicated on the Treatment Card you pick, ignore that card, the whole card. If you are told to leave the Psycho Ward, proceed immediately to “Start”. But remember— if you are sent to either of the two wards a fourth time, you automatically become a permanent resident therein and cannot leave.

Either the first person to reach Panel Thirteen (“Total Enlightenment”) or the only person left who hasn’t yet become a permanent resident of a Psycho Ward, whichever comes first, is the winner of the game. Have fun.

A black and white cartoon illustration depicting a chaotic scene inside a grocery store. On the left, a large, spotted, monstrous creature with a wide, toothy grin is attacking a man. The man is holding a baseball bat and appears to be in a defensive stance. A woman is running away from the creature, and another man is holding a newspaper that says "CRAZY". The store is filled with various items, including cans of soup, a shopping cart, and signs. A sign in the background says "EXPRESS CHECK-OUT 10 ITEMS OR LESS". Another sign says "MAGA NEWS". The scene is filled with a sense of panic and disorder.
